

Letter From Ram Charan, USA

To
Sri Nannagaru

-OM-

- Garland of Unconditional Love -

The fragrance of these petals Doesn't think anything unworthy;
So Your Grace

Doesn't see anything separate.
The dream that I was anything else Other than you

Dissolved when you garlanded this murti With your flowers of Unconditional Love

You married me with this garland; I merged and became nothing

So there is no-one to garland you in return...

This I-thought

Is just another flower
Which adorns your neck.
